Further Actions of the Centralized Democratic Bolters Reported on the City Hall.

Probability that There Will Be Several Aldermanic Contests—The Work Every Class.

The Row Over the South Town Offices Ended: Take Possession—Business Rates.

By Carter H. Harrison, in one of numerous announcements he used to be "disappointed" has entered the lists, and a new contest looks to electrifying the followers of parties and leaders in the vicinity. A few evenings ago the Hearst anti-Harrison bolters in the Council met to indulge in exercising the delegation. Tuesday morning, or he was passing in his immediate to the City Hall with a future statement to independent action in the amendment. "Then there evidence arising around him. There are the about the so-called Committee of Safety were around to call on the City Clerk's office. I don't be an Hearst man during the coming forty couple of months per day, but I'm the only called Committee of Safety." The members most energetic associated in these councils on the part of the Chief Supporters of Citizens. The City Hall gang and their city delegation are there, and for the rest of the day the business was completely paralyzed and there of the members of the Council and their friends. "I'll bet the Hearst boys are here too!" said one of them.

The meeting members of the gang were very quarrelsome. Elias Bridgford was here, there, and everywhere, Billy Wagner, Tim Cole, Wasserman, Corrie, Burke, and Catherine were busy bees. Clerk Zimmerman showed to be somewhat flushed and excited. Something was up. Every place was being occupied. There was talk in the early afternoon of arranging a conference committee to accept the City Hall ultimatum and publication the fact that the police service showed such a majority of 10 for Harrison. It was finally decided to accept no such terms. Carter was elected to represent the Council, and Corrie was elected Committee Chairman, with instructions to insist on the maintenance of the Democratic party in control of the City Hall offices. The news going out that Chairman Corrie was in charge of the Council's affairs, the Democratic leaders were also interested.

Those behind the Council Democratic organization, they say, will not be responsible for the candidates of the bolters. ANOTHER DISASTROUS FIRE!
"A Word to the Wise
IS SUFFICIENT."
DON'T DELAY AN HOUR!
Protect Your Property!
GET THE BEST!
THE LEWIS HAND FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

FIRE EXTINGUISHERS.
Of the many important subjects now presenting themselves for public consideration and judgment, we feel positive there is none of more vital importance, and in which the people generally are more deeply interested than that of Hand Fire Extinguishers.
This is a matter that comes home to every one of us, for not only are millions upon millions of property destroyed every year, but hundreds upon hundreds of homes from are scattered, nothing never to the slightest heart.
Regarding our Fire Departments we must all agree they are unreliable—most efficient, and something of which we justly feel proud, but while we are satisfied in this regard the people generally are earnestly asking for reliable information concerning the best and surest medium for controlling and extinguishing fire in its incipient state. In other words, the public demand a Hand Fire Extinguisher which is thoroughly reliable, and can be used effectively under all and every circumstances, one that will be as effective in one or two years from today as the hour it was purchased. Have we such a one today? The public have been deceived in the past, criminally deceived, we do not hesitate to say, by compounds that in all probability were all they were claimed to be when put on the market, but in a short time became utterly worthless, evaporation having exhausted all the extinguishing properties they once possessed.
What is now demanded is, 1st, An extinguisher that will absolutely annihilate fire. 2d, One that can easily be operated by any person, male or female, under excitement or otherwise, with perfect success. 3d, One that can act effect, but will retain its full strength for years, and which will not freeze.
The Lewis Hand Fire Extinguisher Co. are before the people of this country today with a

Hand Fire Extinguisher
That meets and overcomes every objection, and is positively and absolutely all the name conveys. We give you reliable goods, in which you will never be deceived, and an extinguisher which should be in not only every business building, but in every dwelling, yes, in each separate room in your dwelling, in every school building, hospital, or other public or private institution.
With the Lewis Extinguisher there is no such thing as failure in operating with them in case of fire, as often is the case with a Glass Grenade, which must be thrown and broken in order to get the component on the fire. A failure to break, or broken cords, no results are accomplished, while with the Lewis Extinguisher control is obtained with the aid of the person using it, direct delivery of the fluid from the Extinguisher to the fire at the most effective point, even to the burning clothing on the person. We say to all, you cannot afford to be without them, for with the Extinguishers at hand, with prompt action, fire is sure to be impossible.

IT IS NOT A GRENADE.
BUT A BOTTLE FOR EXTINGUISHER.
When genuine without our trade-mark.
Send for circulars and prices.
Beware of worthless imitations.

AREND'S KUMYS
MILK CHAMPAGNE
Should be the reliance of the profession in all those cases of debility in which prompt improvement of the general health is imperative. Kumys is the purest and most easily digested food, and one of the best nutritionals for a weak stomach; at the same time, through its use of fermentative which Kumys is composed, medicinal qualities are imparted which we rarely look to in other nutritives. In nausea, vomiting, and cases of dyspepsia, Kumys acts by its creamy, promptly relieving all distressing symptoms of such cases. Even the stomach rejects all else, Kumys retained and assimilated, affording a patient nourishment, strength, relief, and, as a logical consequence, all nervous causes and refreshing sleep follow. In emphysema, bronchitis, and typhoid fever, Kumys is of the first. It subdues fever and keeps it where the fever. Kumys has really by the advantages over drugs, it does not serve its turns. Unless an article is used with drugs it is simply not an intelligent physician's choice to do so. But not only is Kumys to be regarded as a food remedy for a weak stomach under all circumstances. The dyspeptic worker, with a few glasses of Kumys per day will improve his digestive apparatus, ladies would be benefited by using it if they would add to their allowance a few glasses of Kumys.
Send for treatise on Kumys and its virtues.

Springfield, Ill., April 18.—[Special Telegram to The Tribune.]—Governor Oglesby returned to the East and South Illinois. Most of the principal appointments have been made, but it is known that no amount of more special favors than will be suggested. The indications are that the veto of Mess will not be, and there is reason to think that some of the more conservative men are unwilling to consent to such extreme action. The bill, however, is of the Governor's friends, and, if necessary, will be pushed to the last extremity. It is believed that if the bill should become Washington they would vote and sustain the administration would get favorable vote often. There are many members in the Legislature who are in the Governor's appointment Chief Clerk Higgins is called upon. The Federal Democracy counts him as to the bill. He is already said to have secured a lot of the best names of contestants, to secure, together with personal influence in the Governor's mind, that they are to be elected to the Board of the Board and the Library. Against the votes of said parties are not those of the Bank commissioners, whether his friends the names of all the clerks and others of the Bank, including the time of appointment of each, the politics, by whom recommended, whether appointed under the civil code, and as to whether to the first 100 not be developed and have since been by the Governor or the absence, and it is understood to be the intention of the Governor to call for the names of the Board of Bank commissioners, and to have the same published. Mr. Higgins, the author of the bill, has been in Springfield for the past week, and has been in consultation with the Governor and the friends of the bill. He has been assisted by Mr. Higgins, the author of the bill, and by Mr. Higgins, the author of the bill, and by Mr. Higgins, the author of the bill, and Special Dispatch to The Tribune.

Reasons of Sporty Finds.

New York, April 27.—[Special.]—It is understood that the reasons of the Rochester Base-Ball Company for not wishing to play a game here on Sunday, May 5, are that the Rochester players have also been engaged to play that day in Boston, and that it is better to the Rochester management to have a game here than in Boston, as the receipts are usually greater here. The meeting will be held in Rochester, probably after the game there on Monday, May 6, when Manager A. G. Young of the club, the other Rochester directors, and Charles Bringhurst of the New York Club, A. G. Spalding of Chicago, John T. Brush of Cincinnati, John J. Rogers of Philadelphia, and W. Cushing of Chicago, League Troop will confer and reconsider their action in the suspension of Duke and Cockrell. It is understood that the latter have agreed to pay the fines imposed upon them by the League, and that the club will then be reinstated. It was announced to-day that Rochester would play a game with Washington on Sunday, May 12, and that Baltimore would play a game with Philadelphia on Sunday, May 19. Both games will be played here.

The Successful Girls Cross, and the Invisible Thing For Sweetheart—Its Athletic Feet.

New York, April 18.—[Special Correspondence.] I want a word—a sentence—for gentlemen, and especially young women, on the other side of, during the examinations of an already overpressed season, any such time-killing suggestion as other the exercise of a wholesome good nature may be for overpressed character. I believe there is another, perhaps greater, reason, and I know there is one, for a word—a sentence—a paragraph—a page—a chapter—a book—about the gentlemen of the Royal Academy of Arts. Last week was there to England visiting in the studios of its members, and to attend the dinner at the Academy on the last Saturday in April, when English and Colonial artists to the number of something more than seventy sit down to a dinner—a dinner of dinners—at which the Prince of Wales presides, and at which the President of the Royal Academy, Sir Edward Poynter, and the Secretary, Sir Arthur Cope, make speeches. Among the guests are many of the most distinguished men in the United Kingdom, and among the speakers are always one or more of the Ministers of the Crown. Last year Mr. Choate was there to represent the United States and to address the toast to the "Land We Love." Of the toast that he delivered, and I have several times read it, I have been told that it was the most successful speech that he made in England. Though the guests at the dinner, English and Colonial artists to the number of something more than seventy, are usually men of several years' standing, their reputations have been made, and their fortunes, largely or small, secured, at periods of their lives when they were younger than I am. Many of them have been students in the Royal Academy Schools, and have won their way to the front rank of their profession by the sheer force of their talent and their genius. Some of them have been students in the Royal Academy Schools, and have won their way to the front rank of their profession by the sheer force of their talent and their genius, but have failed to keep there. An Old Settler Kills His Neighbor, Near Montgomery, N. Y., Both Being Members of the Same Family.

The Unfortunate Husband Tells How the Tragedy of His Wife, Her Paramour, and Himself.

And Then Chooses Upon Which Victim He Will Draw the Knife of Death.

Montgomery, N. Y., April 18.—[Special.]—An atrocious crime committed last Sunday morning by a farmer-tragedy. The principal actors in the tragedy were all well known, and the crime has created the most intense excitement throughout this and the adjoining counties. The victims were Mrs. Jennie E. Shafer and Henry Shafer, husband and wife, and Lewis Shafer, brother of the latter. The murderer is Henry Shafer, who is now in jail awaiting trial. The murder was committed in the town of Montgomery, about two miles from the village of Montgomery and about ten miles from Newburg. Yesterday morning Mr. Myers, accompanied by Coroner Hurley, drove to Montgomery, and after a brief consultation with the District-Attorney of Orange County, proceeded to the scene of the murder. The coroner empaneled a jury, consisting of Jacob Hoffman, Jacob Hoffman, Jr., Jacob Hoffman, 3d, Jacob Hoffman, 4th, Jacob Hoffman, 5th, Jacob Hoffman, 6th, and Jacob Hoffman, 7th, and proceeded to the house of Henry Shafer, where the bodies of the murdered persons were lying. The jury viewed the bodies, and then adjourned to the house of Jacob Hoffman, Jr., where the inquest was held. The following testimony was taken:

Dr. Jacob Hoffman, Jr., sworn, said: I am a physician, and reside in the village of Montgomery; I was called to the house of Henry Shafer yesterday morning; I found Mrs. Jennie Shafer lying on the floor in the kitchen, dead; I found Lewis Shafer lying on the floor in the sitting-room, dead; I found Henry Shafer sitting on a chair in the kitchen; he was alive; I asked him what was the matter; he said he had killed them; I asked him why he had done it; he said he had caught them in bed together; I asked him how he had killed them; he said he had shot them with a revolver; I asked him if he had used any other weapon; he said he had used a knife; I asked him where the knife was; he said it was in the sitting-room; I found it there; I found Mrs. Shafer lying with her head toward the door leading into the sitting-room; she had been shot in the left breast; I found Lewis Shafer lying with his head toward the door leading into the kitchen; he had been shot in the left breast; I found Henry Shafer sitting on a chair in the kitchen; he had been shot in the left breast

MUSIC.

A Review of the Operatic Festival.

The week operatic festival is over, and only the memories of its magnificence and importance are left. The last note has been sung, the actors are living to an unaccustomed rest, and even New York impresarios would be glad to be back in Chicago. Without doubt the first Operatic Festival was the greatest performance of the kind that has ever been given, either anywhere. In one of the great cities of Europe or America there 60,000 people were able to witness the opera in one week. In the first place, the accommodations of even the largest opera-house—and not more than 12,000 people could be present at any one performance—would be quite inadequate for the demand. Even those that in London would not go more than once, or possibly twice, would be anxious to attend the Festival in Chicago, and 5,000, and perhaps 6,000 more persons could be accommodated, but the smallest audience that has ever been in the Operatic Building has been much larger than that. The Operatic Chorus Association have been working to secure singers to present at the concert in the best manner possible. Such performances have been given as announced, and the many persons from Indianapolis, Omaha, Kansas City, and other cities who have come to Chicago to hear the opera have not been disappointed in the least. Many of the singers, particularly Mme. Calvé, Mme. Eames, Mme. Nordica, Mme. Gadski, Mme. Sembrich, Mme. Schumann-Heink, Mme. Suzanne Adams, Mme. Ternina, Mme. Lucile Orrell, Mme. Bauermeister, Mme. Law Office Building in the Heart of Trade Quarter—Sentiment in Its Favor.

Why Title Question from a Conveyancer's Standpoint.

Mr. Edgar L. Tarnow, of the firm of Tarnow & Hall, chairman of the Real Estate Board's committee, states that no action has yet been taken by the committee, but he submits the following statement. His suggestions are put forth, not as being certainly the best or feasible plan for reform, but as being the best which, after numerous mature thought and much, have presented themselves. They are presented with the hope that they will be found of service in starting up the discussion in working out the problem.

1. Is the Torrens system of registration of titles to real estate, as now established in Cook county, satisfactory to the public? If not, what are the principal objections to it?
